Pointe West Performances' Full Length Production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream"

Pointe West Performances Dance Company will present their tenth anniversary production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" on Tuesday, March 21, 2005 at 7:00 p.m. at no charge at the Akron Summit County Public Library Main Auditorium. Setting William Shakespeare's play to ballet, contemporary jazz dance, and musical selections, this eclectic presentation includes variations that mark ten years of existence for the Professional Dance Company, Pointe West Performances. Premieres of jazz repertory for the company include fourteen pieces choreographed by Jazz Director, Joli Oliver, and Artistic Director, Suzanne Winland.

This is the tenth anniversary season of PWP, and the rich repertory of new choreography blended with classical traditions promises to make this commemorative performance of the company's first show a landmark presentation. PWP has a strong history of community service and outreach as evidenced by the variety of productions provided to the public in conjunction with the ASCPL.
